Setting up and running a pilot or similar is complex business. It requires intensive work and organising in order to overcome both technical and practical challenges. Collaboration and organisational efforts may be significant within the project itself. At what stage, and how, is it useful to expand the view and think about exchanges and collaboration?
14.30	Useful exchanges and collaborations for your activities? Which? At what stage? Why? How? European collaboration? International collaboration? What can catalyse your progress? EU? What's in it for you?
15.45	Conclusions and next steps
16.00	End of workshop
